RESEARCH EXPERIENCE:

Postdoctoral Fellowship at Vanderbilt University.....February 2017 - current

As postdoctoral fellow working with the EDEFI research group (Explorations in Diversifying Engineering Faculty Initiative) my main duties are to coordinate the development and longitudinal evaluation of a virtual race- and gender-conscious mentoring program for Black engineering and computing doctoral students, under the guidance of co-PIs William Robinson and Ebony McGee. I also participate in survey and qualitative research related to increasing the representation of Black engineering and computing faculty in the professoriate.

Graduate Assistantship at University of Nevada, Reno..... August 2012 - August 2016

As the data analyst for the Associated Students of the University of Nevada (ASUN)'s Center for Student Engagement, my responsibilities included designing assessments and managing multiple ongoing and discrete projects related to student engagement on campus. Projects included but were not limited to assessments of student government, student elections, clubs and organizations, student employment, student media, and participation in civic engagement.

Research Assistantship at University of Nevada, Reno..... August 2010 - May 2012

As a Research Assistant at the University of Nevada, Reno, I assisted my faculty advisor with two projects: 1) analyzing survey data from Northern Nevadans on their attitudes toward U.S. military veterans and active duty personnel, and 2) a qualitative analysis of narratives of individuals who attempted suicide.
